Physician-led KaMMCO Admitted to Connecticut Insurance Market

(Topeka, KS. March 5, 2018) KaMMCO is pleased to announce the company has been admitted to sell medical professional liability insurance and cyber security insurance in the State of Connecticut. KaMMCO, founded in 1989 by the Kansas Medical Society, has developed a solid reputation built on service, advocacy, protection and innovation. Now, KaMMCO is able to offer its products and services to the physicians and the patients they serve in Connecticut.

As a member-directed insurance and healthcare technology company, KaMMCO provides long term security and financial stability. KaMMCO is rated “A-” (Excellent) by A.M. Best. “The KaMMCO underwriting discipline and financial strength, combined with our pledge to provide members with superior claims protection offers healthcare professionals a truly unique medical professional liability insurance option,” said Kurt Scott, president and chief executive officer of KaMMCO.

KaMMCO enters the Connecticut market with support from the Connecticut State Medical Society. “We are proud to work with the Connecticut State Medical Society to grow our insurance business,” said Scott, “and we are honored they recognize us as their medical professional liability insurance Preferred Affinity Partner.”

Matthew Katz, executive vice president and chief executive officer of CSMS said, “We are excited to add KaMMCO as a proven insurance option for liability insurance and especially cyber security insurance for our members. KaMMCO is a partner we know we can count on.” Katz added that the cyber security insurance is extremely important to CSMS members following recent identity theft incidents.

KaMMCO began the licensing process early 2017 and received notification from the Connecticut Insurance Department on February 23. “In working closely with the Connecticut State Medical Society on the development and launch of CTHealthLink, the physician-led health information exchange, it became clear that there was an opportunity to further serve the physicians and healthcare providers of Connecticut with valuable insurance products,” Scott added.

KaMMCO will be working with the organization’s brokerage firm, CSMS Insurance Agency, and anticipates quoting coverage later this spring.

About KaMMCO
