

Nominee Biographies

Carrie L. Lutz

Holton, Kansas

Hospital CEO

Ms. Lutz received her Bachelor of Science degree in nursing from Washburn University in 1988 and her Master of Science in management from Baker University in 2003. Ms. Lutz served in various capacities at St. Francis Health Center prior to joining Holton Community Hospital in Holton, Kansas, in 2012 as Chief Nursing Officer and then Chief Executive Officer under a management agreement with St. Francis. She then became Holton Community Hospital's Chief Executive Officer in 2015. Ms. Lutz also currently serves as Past Chair of the Kansas Hospital Association Board of Directors.

This would be Ms. Lutz's first term as a member of the KAMMCO board.

Jany K. Moussa, MD

Wichita , Kansas

Nephrology

Dr. Moussa received his pre-medical education and his doctorate of medicine from the University of Aleppo School of Medicine, Mauhafaza, Aleppo, Syria. He completed a research fellowship in osteoporosis and bone metabolism at Loma Linda University Medical Center in Loma Linda, California, completed his residency at the University of Kansas School of Medicine in Wichita where he was chief resident, and completed a fellowship in nephrology at the University of Kansas School of Medicine in Kansas City. Dr. Moussa is a nephrologist in Wichita, Kansas.

This would be Dr. Moussa's second term as a KAMMCO board member.

LaDona M. Schmidt, MD

Holton, Kansas

Family Medicine

Dr. Schmidt received her undergraduate degree in 1982 from Fort Hays State University and her doctorate of medicine from American University of the Caribbean in 1990. Since 1994, Dr. Schmidt has been a family medicine physician in Salina, Lawrence, and Holton, Kansas.

Dr. Schmidt served as an elected member of the KAMMCO from 2015–2017, at which time she became an ex-officio KAMMCO Board member as President-Elect, President, and Past-President of the Kansas Medical Society. This would be Dr. Schmidt's first full term as an elected member of the KAMMCO Board.

Kimberly K. Williams, MD

Salina, Kansas

Family Medicine

Dr. Williams received her Bachelor of Science in General Science from York College in York, Nebraska. She completed her medical degree at the University of Kansas School of Medicine, Wichita. Dr. Williams completed her residency at Lancaster General Hospital in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, where she served as chief resident. After residency, she completed a one-year Fellowship in Faculty Development in Lancaster. Dr. Williams joined Smoky Hill FMRP as an Associate Director in 2010. In October of 2018, she took on the role of Program Director.

This would be Dr. Williams' second term as a KAMMCO board member.